

PRESS NOTE

SHRI M.B. SAGAR IPS, AWARDED PRESIDENT OF INDIA'S POLICE MEDAL

Shri Mahan Bharat Sagar,IPS, Additional Director General of Police, is currently on deputation to Government of India as Chief Vigilance Officer (CVO) of The Shipping Corporation of India Ltd, Mumbai from January 2008. He has been conferred the President of India's Police Medal for distinguished service on the occasion of the Independence Day 2011. This was conveyed to Shri M.B. Sagar by a telegram from Shri R.K. Singh, Union Home Secretary recently.

Shri M.B. Sagar has the distinction of being First Class throughout his academic career. After completing his post graduation in Industrial Economics from the Gujarat University, Ahmedabad in 1984 he was a Research Scholar with the Sardar Patel Institution of Economics & Research, Ahmedabad.

He joined the Indian Police Service in 1985 and commenced his career in the Districts of Durg and Raipur (then part of erstwhile State of Madhya Pradesh and currently part of State of Chattisgarh). Thereafter he served in various capacities in the State of Madhya Pradesh such as Superintendent of Police in Sehore and Betul Districts; Commandant in 3 Units of MP SAF Battalions DIG, CID Police Head Quarters, Bhopal. After elevation to the rank of IGP in 2003 he was posted as Director (Vigilance & Security) in M.P.S.E.B. He was also Zonal / Range I.G.P. of Sagar Range as well as Hoshangabad Range and I.G.P.(CID Vigilance), Police H.Q. Bhopal.

Shri Sagar has also worked in the Public Sector Vigilance Divisions – Air India (1997-2002) and now he is currently the Chief Vigilance Officer of The Shipping Corporation of India Ltd, a Navratna PSU in Mumbai.

Shri Sagar is a widely travelled Officer. He has widely travelled in US, UK, European countries, Africa etc, in connection with his official work and Vigilance enquiries during his posting in Air India. He has written books on Police like “Police Drill Manual” one of the first of its kind for the MP State Police and a book called “SAF- an overview”.

Shri Sagar has been the recipient of several awards and accolades such as “Best Commandant” from various Battalions in MP and the President’s Police Medal by Shri APJ Abdul Kalam in 2005.

The SCI extends its hearty congratulations to Shri M.B. Sagar on his being awarded the President’s Police Medal in 2011 for distinguished service and wish him many more such successes in his future career.

-end-

